Ohio's Superintendent Association

So, You Want To Be A Superintendent?

Monday, December 13, 2021

BASA | 8050 N. High Street | Columbus, OH 43235

This one-day event will introduce and explain the most critical topics faced by a Superintendent. Participants will have access to professionals who have served or are currently serving as Superintendents and excel in the role. This professional development opportunity is like no other, as it has been created by Superintendents for those who want to be Superintendents. It will be a chance to know what preparation is necessary to be considered for the job.

Potential candidates for this professional development would be building level administrators, central office administrators, and those wishing to understand the complexity of being employed as a Superintendent.
